John Walter on Elevated Railroads.

John Walter, proprietor of the London Times, after a pleasant visit in this country, and many amiable talks with newspaper reporters, departed for home in one of last week's steamers from this port. Of New York city elevated railroads he said, in one of his talks, that they serve the public to a far greater extent than the underground railways of London—giving better light, better air and better service. The uniform cheaper tariff, he says, is a good feature, compared with the London system of underground roads, on which the fares vary as much as on those above ground. Each system, he suggests, has its merits and defects, but as a permanent system he prefers that of the New York roads.

The Latest Culinary Fraud.

The French are notoriously an ingenious people. The dearth of game this season has created a new art. The juices of pheasants, partridges, and similar birds, are extracted by a process imperceptible to the buyers of the birds, and these juices, placed in hermetically sealed bottles, are subsequently used to give a gamey flavor to entrées of pigeons and chickens, which are represented, and above all, charged for as the real article.—N. Y. Sun.

Matrimonial Results of Co-Education.

Vincennes, Ind. Hanover College, Ind., recently admitted ladies to her halls, and the result has been several weddings among the students. One occurred last week and the young groom and his best man were suspended for their innocent diversion, and the bride ran off home to escape from the same fate. Co-education is a success at Hanover.

How It Works.

Wisconsin has been trying to destroy its wolves, wild cats and foxes by offering a reward for every one killed, and within six months has expended nearly $8,000 in this way. But those who seem to know, say that the only result has been to increase the number of these animals, the reward offered for their destruction being an incentive to breed and raise them.

THE KING FORTUNE-MAKER OZONE

A New Process for Preserving all Perishable Articles, Animal and Vegetable, from Fermentation and Putrefaction, Retaining their Odor and Flavor.

"OZONE—Purified air, active state of oxygen."—Webster.

This Preservative is not a liquid, pickle, or any of the old and exploded processes, but is simply and purely OZONE, as produced and applied by an entirely new process. Ozone is the antiseptic principle of every substance, and possesses the power to preserve animal and vegetable structures from decay.

There is nothing on the face of the earth liable to decay or spoil which Ozone, the new preservative, will not preserve for all time in a perfectly fresh and palatable condition.

The value of Ozone as a natural preserver has been known to our able chemists for years, but until now, no means of producing it in a practical, inexpensive, and simple manner have been discovered.

Microscopic observations prove that decay is due to septic matter or minute germs, that develop and feed upon animal and vegetable structures, and are applied by the Ozone method, which destroys these germs at once, and thus preserves. At our office in Cincinnati can be seen almost every article that can be thought of, preserved by this process, and every visitor is welcome to come in, taste, smell, take away with him, and test in every way the merits of Ozone as a preservative. We will also preserve, free of charge, any article that is brought or sent prepaid to us, and return it to the sender, for him to keep and test.

FRESH MEATS, such as beef, mutton, veal, pork, poultry, game, fish, etc., preserved by this method, can be shipped to Europe, subjected to atmospheric changes and return to this country in a state of perfect preservation.

EGGS can be treated at a cost of less than one dollar a thousand dozen, and be kept in an ordinary room six months or more, thoroughly preserved; the yolk held in its normal condition, and the eggs as fresh and perfect as on the day they were treated, and will sell as strictly "choice." The advantage in preserving eggs is readily seen: there are seasons when they can be bought for 8 or 10 cents and sold for 100 cents, can be sold for an advance of from one hundred to three hundred per cent. One man, with this method, can preserve 5,000 dozen a day.

A FORTUNE Awaits Any Man who Secures Control of OZONE in any Township or County.

A. C. Bowen, Marion, Ohio, has cleared $3,000 in two months. $2 for a test package was his first investment. Woods Brothers, Lebanon, Warren County, Ohio, made $4,000 on eggs purchased in August and sold November 1st. $3 for a test package was their first investment. F. K. Raymond, Morristown, Belmont Co., Ohio, is clearing $3,000 a month in handling and selling Ozone. $2 for a test package was his first investment. D. F. Weber, Charlotte, Eaton Co., Mich., has cleared $1,000 a month since August. $2 for a test package was his first investment. J. B. Gaylord, 80 La Salle St., Chicago, is preserving corn, fruit, etc., for the commission men of Chicago, charging 14c. per dozen for eggs, and other articles in proportion. He is preserving entirely by this method, and his business is making $3,000 a month clear. $1 for a test package was his first investment.

How to Secure a Fortune with Ozone

A test package of Ozone, containing a sufficient quantity to preserve one thousand dozen eggs, or other articles in proportion, will be sent to any applicant on receipt of $2. This package will enable the applicant to pursue any line of tests and experiments he desires, and thus satisfy himself as to the extraordinary merits of Ozone as a Preservative. After having thus satisfied himself, and had time to look the field over to determine what he wishes to do in the future—whether to sell the article to others, or to confine it to his own use, or any other line of policy which is best suited to him and to his township or county—we will enter into an arrangement with him that will make a fortune for him and give us good profit. We will give exclusive township or county privileges to the first responsible applicant who orders a test package and desires to control the business in his locality. The man who secures control of Ozone for any special territory, will enjoy a monopoly which will surely enrich him. Don't let a day pass until you have ordered a Test Package, and if you desire to secure an exclusive privilege we assure you that delay may deprive you of it, for the applications come in to us by scores every mail—many by telegraph. "First come first served" is our rule.

If you do not care to send money in advance for the test package, we will send it C. O. D., but this will put you to the expense of charges for return of money. Our correspondence is very large; we have all we can do to attend to the shipping of orders.

Give our full address in every letter, and send your letter to: PRENTISS PRESERVING CO., (Limited) S. E. Cor. Ninth & Race Sts., Cincinnati. nov-18:17

RAILWAY BUILDING IN 1881.

We are in the midst of a railway age. Everybody knows that, but few know the actual extent of the work which the last year has either finished or planned for 1882. From reliable eastern exchanges the following estimates have been compiled.

The track laid during the ten months, ending October 1st, was fully 6,000 miles, or twenty-five per cent more than for the same period last year.

The total mileage of 1880 was 7,400, that of 1881 will reach 9,250, and more in case of an open winter. Following is a list of enterprises inaugurated during the year on which definite engagements have been made for construction:

Between the Atlantic and the Upper Mississippi river, north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, 4,791 miles.

Between the Atlantic coast and Mississippi and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, 2,352 miles.

Between the Rocky mountains and the Mississippi river, and south of the latitude of St. Louis, 4,140 miles.

West of the Rocky mountains 540 miles.

Total number of miles expected to be laid between October 1, 1881, and December 21, 1882, 15,866.

The mileage alone in the United States in January 1st, 1882, will be 105,000. $300,000,000 have been expended during the year, and $397,000,000 will be required to do the work laid out for next year.

REPUBLICAN RECORD.

According to the National Republican this has been the position of the Republican party since its birth.

From 1856 to 1861 the Republican party was opposed to the extension of slavery in the territories.

From 1861 to 1865 it was the party in opposition to armed rebellion.

From 1865 to 1869 it was the party which urged to adoption the several amendments to the Constitution intended to secure freedom, citizenship, and enfranchisement.

From 1869 to 1877 it was the party which advocated as much force in support of national laws as they met of resistance.

From 1877 to 1879 it was a party shorn of its strength by the Democratic Delilah—its riddle too well guessed by the Democratic Philistines who had ploughed with its heifer.

From 1879 to 1881 it was a party recovering its strength under renewed pledges to the people that freedom should prevail throughout the land.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Sentinel gives the bulletin yield of Nevada, for the half year ending June 30, at $4,542,507 07, a falling off of over $1,000,000 from the corresponding six months of last year. The figures are from the State Controller's books, and are therefore correct. This will not materially increase the amount of taxable property in support of last year's estimates.

Elko Independent: The short-hand reporter employed to take the testimony in the preliminary examination of the Narrow gauge shooters at Reno, has brought a bill against Washoe County, for his services, of $915—a pretty good price to pay for music when there was no dancing.

"Previous and good character" counts in Texas. A man who was on trial for arson brought forward witnesses to prove that he had neglected two good changes to steal horses, and the jury decided that no such man could be guilty of burning a barn.

The morbid curiosity which many women are supposed to possess, is aptly shown by the crowds of sex-less idiots who are attending the Guiteau trial. They will cry over him when the time comes.

Blaine rather took the wind out of the Scovillian sails when he said, in answer to questions about Stalwarts and Half-breeds: "I will make a political speech for the defense, if it is desired."

The Elko Independent thinks John Dennis is first, last and all the time for Governor, instead of Dennis.

The Tulare Blade is the latest Democratic paper in California. We hope that Democratic apathy may not put it out.

Old "Verbun Sap," of the Carson Tribune does not know what a fertilizer is; he therefore shows his head when talking about it. Fiat justitia.

The Journal takes turkey to-day. It is the weekly's eleventh birthday.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to RENO EVENING GAZETTE.
EASTERN.
THE ASSASSIN'S TRIAL.

OFFICE KEARNEY TRIES TO MAKE A RECORD—GITEAU SECURES OTHER COUNSEL AND MAKES ANOTHER SPEECH.

WASHINGTON, November 18.

OFFICE KEARNEY testified in the Guiteau case yesterday that after Guiteau was arrested, Ticket Agent Parke made a run and grabbed at Guiteau and threw his hat off [laughter]. After Parke made a grab at Guiteau, he said: "That is the man who shot the President." I took the prisoner out, and he said: "I did it. I will go to jail for it. Arthur is President, and I am a Stalwart." When I went into the police headquarters I sang out: "This man killed (or shot) the President." Lieutenant Eckeloff says: "You are giving us taffy." [laughter.] I said: "no," then I took the pistol from the prisoner's pocket, and when I went for those papers, he kicked, and I was going to throw him!

Scoville—cross-examination—Did Parke ever touch him until you brought him into the main room? Witness, solemnly—"Never, so help me God; never. It was up by the heater Parke rushed at him, grabbed at him, knocked off his hat, and said: 'I seize the assassin.'" [loud laughter.]

THE TRIAL TO-DAY.

The crowd about the Court-house this morning was far greater than upon any former day. It was with the greatest difficulty those whose presence was needed in Court could gain admission. At 9:40 the doors were opened and in a few minutes every seat was occupied, the larger proportion of the spectators being ladies.

Guiteau arrived at nine o'clock, and without any particular demonstration on the part of the crowd, was taken at once to the prisoners' room, where he ate a hearty breakfast and expressed himself as well pleased with the progress of his case.

Court opened without an incident and Geo. C. Maynard, electrician, testified to loaning Guiteau $10 at one time and $15 at another. Guiteau protested against this line of evidence. He did not think it anybody's business whether he owed $25, or someone owed him. "Maynard is a good fellow, and I owe him $25, that's all there is in it."

John Omeara testified to selling the pistol to Guiteau.

GITEAU MAKES ANOTHER SPEECH.

Pending the examination of the pistol, Guiteau desired to announce to the Court that he had invited John B. Townsend, of New York, Leonard Sweet and A. S. Trude, of Chicago, to assist him. "There are plenty of brains on the other side and I desire as much in my interest."

"I desire to call the attention of the Court to the fact that there are a number of disreputable characters in Court, and some threats of violence have been made during the week past. I have no fears for my personal safety. The Chief Police has kindly furnished me with a body guard, and I wish to notify all evil-disposed persons that if they attempt to harm me, my body guard will shoot them down, that's all there is about it." Then turning to the reporters he added: "Reporters put that down."

Colonel A. S. Rockwell, the next witness, began to detail the occurrences at the depot, when Scoville interposed, acknowledging the killing.

Guiteau quickly shouted, "No, your honor, we acknowledge the shooting but not the killing."

The prosecution, after examining Dr. Bliss, did not deem it advisable to introduce another witness to-day. Guiteau here attempted to say something, when the District Attorney, bowing with mock gravity, continued, "If Mr. Guiteau will permit me, your honor, I will move to adjourn." Guiteau appeared to relish the pleasantry, and, nodding, replied: "Oh, certainly, you shall have a full chance." The Court then adjourned.

What Hickock Thinks.

CHICAGO, November 19.

Hickock, the jockey, believes that the negotiations for a match race between the colt Phil Tompkins and the fast California three-year-old Fred Crocker and Sweetheart, to be trotted next year, will succeed. "These promising youngsters will then be four years old, and there will be a very pretty race of it."

Who Was Guiteau's Assassin?

WASHINGTON, November 19.

A young man who witnessed the shots fired into the prison van as it passed through the Capitol grounds, says the person who did the shooting was a middle aged man, well dressed and mounted on a remarkably fine white horse. Immediately after firing the shots the horse was started on a dead run, and although the guard stood on the rear steps of the van with pistol in hand, trying to cover the man, he made his escape without difficulty.

Telephonic communications just received from the Washington asylum, situated near the District jail, says Guiteau was struck by a shot fired into the van, but only slightly wounded.

The driver of the prison van says a young man on horseback rode directly up to the rear of the van, and peeping through saw Guiteau alone on the right-hand side. After satisfying himself of the location of Guiteau the horseman wheeled suddenly to the left of the van and fired directly through it.

He then dashed to the front, and pointed his pistol at the driver to intimidate him. Seeing an armed policeman by the side of the driver, he exclaimed: "I have shot the s— of a b—," and putting spurs to his horse, dashed off.

The Labor Congress Past Anti-Chinese Resolutions.

PITTSBURGH, November 18.

The Labor Congress met this morning. Mr. Bergman of California presented the following:

WHEREAS, The experience of the last thirty years in California and on the Pacific Coast having proved conclusively that the presence of the Chinese and their competition with free white labor is one of the greatest evils with which any country can be afflicted; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will use our best efforts to get rid of this monstrous evil, which threatens, unless checked, to injure other parts of the Union; that we will disseminate information respecting its true character, and will urge upon our Representatives in Congress the absolute necessity of passing laws entirely prohibiting the immigration of Chinese into the United States.

Law's Life Work.

NEW YORK, November 19.

The following paragraph is published by the New York papers in an obituary article on the late George Law: "When the California excitement broke out he went into the steamship business, and in '48 purchased the steamship Falcon, and sent her to Chagres. He transferred passengers across the Isthmus on mules. He had previously sent a steamer around Cape Horn to take the passengers from Panama to San Francisco. Law built several other steamers. In 1852 he purchased a large interest in the Panama railroad, and going to Aspinwall he located the terminus of the road and set men to work building it."

The Busted Boston Bank.

BOSTON, November 19.

The Boston Pacific Bank will soon be reorganized under the Presidency of Lewis Coleman, and with new Directors Bank examiner Needham says that $1,350,000 will be required to resume business. The Central National was helped out because its wreck would ruin the Home Savings' vault and International Trust Companies.

Needham, while expressing the opinion that there was no fraud or dishonesty on the part of bank officials, evidently regards the transactions as showing a lack of judgment. This condition of things should have been known some time ago.

Another Trestle Bridge Disaster.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., November 19.

Fifteen passengers were injured by the falling of a train through a trestle bridge across the creek on the Pekin division of the Wabash road four miles from here to-day. The bridge was eighty feet long and twenty feet high. Recent rains have weakened the support, and the bridge gave way. A passenger car was left suspended at an angle of forty-five degrees, supported by the timbers. None of the passengers were killed.

Guiteau's Extra Counsel.

WASHINGTON, November 19.

Scoville has been questioned in relation to Guiteau's alleged new counsel, Judge Magruder, of Maryland. He said he was not aware of any tender of services from Judge Magruder. He had received several offers from lawyers, strangers to him, and feared he might make a great mistake by taking an unknown counsel at this stage of the trial.

The Fatal Noose.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 19.

Boge Jackson was executed at Hamburg, Ashley county, to-day for the murder of Ben Jordan, both colored. He was a noted desperado, having committed two or three crimes previous to the one for which he was executed.

European Arctic Enterprise.

NEW YORK, November 19.

Berlin, France and England have declared their readiness to join in an international Arctic expedition.

After the Assassin—He Escapes Again.

WASHINGTON, November 19.

It is reported that Guiteau was shot after leaving the court-room, the ball taking effect in his hand. Several rumors are in circulation, one of which is that when the van in which Guiteau was riding from the court-room back to jail had reached the vicinity of the Capitol, a man riding on horseback came up and fired two shots, and then rode rapidly away in the direction of the Navy Yard. It is not believed Guiteau was hit at all.

A Defaulting Treasury Agent.

WASHINGTON, November 19.

Harrison Johnston, of Columbus, Miss., through ex-Secretary of the Treasury, Bristow, is asking for a bill of particulars from the Governor, in a suit instituted against him to recover nearly $2,000, and it is claimed that Johnston, as Treasury agent, failed to account to the Department for a great quantity of Confederate cotton which was seized.

The Garfield Hospital.

WASHINGTON, November 19.

The treasurer of the Garfield Memorial hospital fund announces that contributions to that object now amount to $80,000, and assurance has been received from all parts of the country that this sum will shortly be increased by large additional subscriptions.

NEW YORK, November 19.

Following is the record of the games played last night in the New York tournament: Daly, 200; Heiser, 181; Carter, 200; Wallace, 198; Schaeffer, 200; Morris, 196; Gallagher, 200; Dion, 181.

NEW YORK, November 19.

A New York Herald's cable from Dublin says: Parnell's latest letter, of which a part was suppressed, has been issued in a circular form and widely circulated. It is accompanied, in Rosecommon, by an address to the people, calling attention to the letter, and concluding, "Need you be reminded that, though the Land League is prescribed, its spirit is indestructible. Adhere, then, firmly to the line laid down for you. The result will not be merely free land, but an independent and prosperous Irish nation."

Another Criminal Donated.

LIEBET, Switzerland, Nov. 19.

Another bad case of "assisted emigration" has just developed. Chas. Dunkel, twenty-two years of age, native son of a vagabond, was shipped Saturday from Havre on the French steamer St. Germain. Dunkel has served seventeen terms of imprisonment, in fact, he has been in the penitentiary almost constantly from childhood. He was still under sentence to the workhouse when he was taken and shipped to America. Consul Mason protested and will send the case to the State Department.

A World of Good.

One of the most popular medicines now before the public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whisky or a drink. It is more like the old-fashioned home set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right, try Hop Bitters. —Bunda News.

A Lady's Wish.

"Oh, how I wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," said the friend. "How," inquired the lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure, rich blood and blooming health. It did for me, as you observe." Read of it.
